THE P3 METHOD

PREGNANCY, POST PARTUM & PELVIC FLOOR

Created by Katie Swift O'Connor

Edited by Phoebe Jeurissen
& Jane Strickland

What you need to know

The P3 Method is a one day course designed to equip you with the basic knowledge of the physiological changes of pregnancy & postpartum as well as the key workings of the Pelvic Floor.

Whether you are a fitness professional looking for an in-depth knowledge on how to apply safe movement to your clients, or you are looking to deepen your own knowledge of how to move safely through this time, this course will give you the tools to progress forward. You will learn how to best take care of your pregnant, postpartum and pelvic floor compromised clients, with an enhanced knowledge of the function and role of the pelvic floor, and the pregnancy and postpartum phase of life.

Who we are:

Who you are:

Someone who has a passion for movement, fitness and people. You want to expand your skill set. You want to motivate people to move mindfully with The Method NZ. You may have a fitness background or you may not but you are dedicated to encouraging people to exercise positively. You want to inspire confidence in your clients and yourself!

What does the training look like?

The P3 Method workshop is a one day training. We will talk you through the program of Anatomy and Physiology, with an accompanying hardcopy manual to take home. We go through 'what' to teach, and 'how' to teach it. The training involves practicing and teaching, as well as peer to peer discussion on best practice for Pelvic Floor safety, Pregnancy and Postpartum. We aim to equip you so you feel confident implementing modifications and adjustments and catering to clients with specific needs in a class plan and group workouts. You will be workshopping and learning with the other course participants teaching exercises, learning what to expect from clients plus how to present modifications, advancements and adjustments to deliver safe and effective workouts.

Our course has been reviewed and endorsed by Pelvic Health Physiotherapists.

Certification

Upon completion of the entire day, you will receive
"The Pregnancy, Postpartum & Pelvic Floor Method NZ" certificate.
